1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the cold. It was a sharp contrast to the warm, humid air of the tropics. I shivered slightly, pulling my jacket closer. The ground below was a vast, flat expanse of green, dotted with small, dark patches. In the distance, a range of low, rolling hills could be seen under a pale, overcast sky. The air smelled fresh, with a hint of earth and a touch of pine. I took a deep breath, feeling a sense of peace and tranquility. The silence was broken only by the distant hum of a plane and the soft rustle of leaves. It was a beautiful, serene scene, and I felt like I had found a hidden gem. The world was so different here, so much more peaceful. I smiled, feeling a sense of accomplishment. I had made it. I was here. And it was exactly where I needed to be.
